HOUSING

ITBA, as every university in Argentina, is an urban campus, fully integrated into the city. Buenos Aires has increasingly become a preferred destination for students from all over the world and is well equipped to welcome them by offering a wide range of accommodation facilities, for every budget and preference. Universities in the city do not count with their own student residences.
Exchange students can ask for recommendations regarding housing options to the Buddies

VISA

Students need to apply for a VISA before arriving in Buenos Aires. Visa de estudiante - 365 | Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores, Comercio Internacional y Culto.

Students who do not need a visa for entering as a tourist in Argentina must get their student visa through Tramitación de Ingreso Electrónica - TIE 24H

Students who need a visa for entering as a tourist must contact the Consular Office of the Argentine Republic in the place of residence of the foreign nation as soon as they receive their Admission Letter from ITBA.

Important: ITBA won't accept students who haven't got their student visa before entering Argentina, since entering as a tourist and changing their status once they arrive will no longer be accepted.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Health insurance is mandatory and must remain active throughout the stay at ITBA. Reimbursement-based systems are not accepted. Coverage must include:

- Medical expenses (including mental health care)
- Illness and hospitalization
- Individual accidents
- Civil liability
- Evacuation and repatriation
