VISA

■ Mandatory student D-2 visa. Information will be provided to students upon selection.
■ Students should secure a D-2 visa from their home country and are responsible for any issues upon entry with a tourist visa (K-ETA). The student visa comes in two types: D-2-6 for exchange students and D-2-8 for visiting students.
■ You can apply for an Alien Registration Card (ARC) individually or as a group.
*Group applications are managed by our school's chosen agency, Hire Diversity, and may incur associated costs
■ The ARC issuance time, typically around 45 days, remains uncertain regardless of whether you apply individually or as a group.
■ Leaving Korea without obtaining an ARC after entering with a D-2 student visa will automatically expire your visa.
■ Making travels to other countries is only possible after obtaining the ARC, so please plan your trips after your midterm exams.
■ Visa extensions for personal reasons after the semester ends must be handled individually, as the university cannot provide guidance.

HEALTH INSURANCE

All international students must be insured by the National Health Insurance Program or a Private Insurance Program.

■ Students with a D-2 Visa is subject to the mandatory subscription to the National health insurance of Korea.
■ Monthly fee of about USD 60 is automatically subscribed (No action required from students.)
■ If students don't pay the fee, visa extension after the semester may be restricted.
■ Since NHIS does not cover all injury costs, it is recommended to obtain personal full-coverage insurance during stay in Korea.
